

MEAT MEN VOTE TO CALL STRIKE

Will Walk Out Unless the Packers Agree to Keep Eight Hours

STRIKE CAN BE HALTED

If Results at Packer-Laborer
Conference Justify Walkout May Be Stopped

CHICAGO, March 18.—By a vote of 21,482 to 267, union workers in Chicago packing plants went on record today to call a strike if they are "unable to induce the packers to maintain the eight-hour work day." Thousands of reports at union headquarters were said to indicate similar strike movements in other packing house centers throughout the country.

What They Voted On.
The ballot on which the workers voted follows:

"Do you favor and authorize a strike in the event that the government of our organization is unable to induce the packers to maintain the eight-hour day and compliance with the agreement entered into with the United States department of labor?"

The agreement referred to was a wartime ruling which submitted all wage and hour disputes between the packers and their employees to a federal arbitrator, Judge Samuel A. Butler, having occupied the position during the war period. The packers withdrew from the agreement on February 24 on the ground that the war was over. The agreement specified that it was to remain in force one year after the end of the war. The unions claim that the war has not officially ended.

After withdrawal from the agreement, the packers announced wage reductions of from 12 1/2 to 15 percent and changed the workday from eight hours to 10 hours before overtime was paid. They also announced plans by which the workers would participate in the control of the plant affairs. Armour & Co. having been in action this week at which their men elected representatives to an "industrial democracy." The plan was assailed by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor and union leaders in an effort to divert the attention from an attack designed to destroy the unions. This was done by the packers.

Strike Can Be Averted.

The present strike ballot, it was said by union leaders, is worked in such a way as to make it possible for the strike to be averted at the packer-labor conference called by Secretary of Labor Davis, to meet in Washington on Monday. The union leaders take the position, however, that if the packers refuse either to restore the former wage scale and hours or to submit the whole disagreement to the federal arbitrator, the officials of the unions will be forced to order a walkout.

KANSAN TO SHOW ART COLLECTION

Big Assortment of Prints and Etchings to Be Displayed Here

One of the best known collections of etchings and prints in the United States, owned by Carl Smalley of McPherson, Kan., an authority on prints, is to be exhibited in Tulsa from Tuesday, March 29 to April 9. It was announced yesterday. The Chiaroscuro club of Central high school, whose members were responsible for the bringing of the famous painting from the Erie galleries, New York city, last month, is bringing the collection of etching here, and they will be exhibited in the corridors of the high school.

Etchings by Rembrandt, Albrecht Durer, Andrew Zorn and Whistler are included in this remarkable collection which has been shown in Kansas City, San Francisco, Los Angeles and other large cities of the country. The success of the Chiaroscuro club in securing the collection for Tulsa art lovers to enjoy is a distinct achievement. As before, Tulsa clubs will have their special days at the exhibit, and members of the school club will act as guides as they did for the exhibit of paintings. Miss Adah Robinson, head of the art department, is sponsoring this move of the art club.

PROBLEMS OF HIGH SCHOOL

Principal Prunty Will Lecture at Kansas Summer Session.

Only practical problems of high school organization and administration will be taken up by Morrie C. Prunty this summer in his course of lectures at the University of Kansas summer session. High school objectives, as related to elementary schools, colleges and the practical world will be discussed by Mr. Prunty in his classes dealing with problems confronting teachers of secondary schools. Two courses will be offered by Mr. Prunty, one in high school administration and the other in extra-curricular activities. Study of efficiency tests, selection and rating of teachers, vocational direction and social organization are a few of the subjects as outlined by Mr. Prunty that will be included in class discussions. The courses are to be intensely practical; only material definitely related to actual school conditions is to be used by him.

The course in extra-curricular activities is offered at the university summer session for the first time this year.

Poles March, Celebrate.
By The Associated Press.
WARSAW, March 18.—Thousands of Poles from all walks of life, receiving an old nation, today marched in a parade from the parliament building to the fourteenth century cathedral, where thanksgiving services were celebrated for the adoption of the constitution of the Republic of Poland.

He is survived by three sisters and two brothers of Kansas City and one brother of New York. The body will be taken to Kansas City, the old family home, for interment.

STUDENTS HONOR HERO'S MEMORY

Tree Planted in Honor of Joe Carson; Services
at Assembly

Because Joe Carson rests now in the majesty of death, having given his life in the world war for his country and its people, American students in Tulsa, Okla., have decided to honor his memory by planting a tree in his honor. The tree will be planted in the grounds of the Central high school in memory of the one boy from Central who died in battle. Four students assisted Mr. J. H. Holtzer and Principal Merle C. Prunty in planting the elm tree, a ceremony that embraced the observation of Arbor day as well as the tribute to the memory of the school's honored dead.

The planting of the tree followed services held in assembly. Splendid tribute to Joe Carson as a man, as a patriot and as a brave soldier was paid by John Rogers in a brief address at this service. Joe Carson's mother, Mrs. S. M. Carson, did not arrive for the dedicatory service, owing to a misunderstanding of the time. Her home is 1421 South Detroit avenue.

FRAT EDITOR ENTERTAINED

Thirty-five members of the Kappa Sigma fraternity met one of their brothers, Edna K. Farr, editor of its national monthly publication, the Caduceus, at luncheon yesterday at noon in the private dining room of the Kennedy, and heard him make a brief talk. Mr. Farr is now representing Lane Seminary of Cincinnati, Ohio, of which school he is a faculty member, and is making inquiry at the University of Tulsa relative to the standing of credits there from Lane.

Mr. Farr has been visiting fraternally chapters in the east, and alumnae chapters throughout the country. This is his first visit to Tulsa, and he was very much impressed with the business and residence sections of the city after a ride about the streets yesterday afternoon.

There are about 60 members of the Kappa Sigma fraternity in Tulsa, with 35 chapters represented.

"That poor little income got an awful wallop last Tuesday, but cheer up; all is not lost. Let 'that something' assert itself. I'm just home from market and here's the silver lining to the cloud. Three purchases stand out as the best I've ever made."

FIRST—One lot of FITFORM suits in gray herringbone and neat chalk stripes that I know were bought $10 under regular price because of the quantity. These suits have pre-war quality and with my regular tailoring lines makes this shop the real Easter suit center. Ready-made prices—$34.75, $39.75, $48.50, $52.50.

To order—$40, $45, $50, $60 and $65

SECOND—A neckwear purchase of greater magnitude than would originally last all the season of splendid Cheyney silks that would have brought $2 to $3.50 Christmas time. Neat patterns in new, narrow shapes in three groups—$1.00, $1.50, and $2.00.

THIRD—A purchase of silk lisle chain knit hose worth 65c last fall and 50c in January, but I took the entire lot in seven colors, black, white, green, Palm Beach, chocolate, blue, and gray, and have put a MAKEMGO price on them, of—35c, three for $1.

"If I should ever be as big as Wanamaker I would always feel myself a servant and in this connection couldn't offer better values than those above mentioned."

ODD BUSINESS HEARD BY HOUSE

Appropriation Bill for the State Institutions Is Not Reached

By Associated Press Staff Wire.
OKLAHOMA CITY, March 18.—After adopting the report of the investigating committee attacking the highway department, the Oklahoma house gave the remainder of the day today to odds and ends of business and failed to reach the appropriation bill for state institutions. The calendar was reflected primarily by the calling of the roll on one bill of least significance, and a few votes to concur in senate amendments to other bills.

Among motions to advance bills to final stage before passage, without reference to the committee of the whole, was one by L. A. Pearson, of Hollis, Harmon county, to set the house bill repealing state income tax for final consideration Monday. After considerable argument, action on the bill was postponed indefinitely. Edwin Dabney induced notice that he would move to reconsider the bill, which had defeated the bill by Mrs. Beattie McCollin, of Rogers, Tulsa county, to create a board of child hygiene in the state health department.

RETAIL TRADE BETTER

Excellent Spring Weather and the Approach of Easter Brightens
Up the Situation

NEW YORK, March 18.—Broad street's tomorrow will say: "Excellent spring weather and the near approach of Easter has brightened up looking and retail trade. The former sends about the best reports since late summer of 1920, and the latter the best since the pre-Christmas rush of last year. Then, too, collections are a shade better, and the automobile and building and kindred trades have shown more life and have bought more freely of materials. Trade as a whole, in fact, is about fully fair, best reports coming from the northern half of the country."

But when this is said, it must also be conceded that industry lags, that employment though more widely diffused, still lacks heavily of affording full occupation for millions of workers, that signs of backwardness or reaction are common, this, by the way, in lines that led the 1921 revival that the general industrial and commercial movement is very irregular, spotty in the worst frequently used, and that the pessimism so freely voiced last week still finds expression of complaints that the revival is not an great as expected.

School Girls on Outing.
School girls 41 strong, from Whittier and Emerson grade schools embarked on an interurban car Friday afternoon for the Y. W. C. A. camp at Parthenia park, in joyous anticipation of an outing. There were 20 from Whittier school, accompanied by two teachers, and 27 girl reserves from Emerson school, accompanied by Mrs. Velma J. Craig. The plan was for a variety of hikes and walks through the spring woods today and return late this afternoon.

Suit on Missouri Judgment.
Suit on a judgment for $37,959 obtained in the Jackson county, Missouri, court January 7, 1921, was begun in the Tulsa county district court Friday by the Continental Oil Supply company of St. Louis, Mo., against the Consumers Oil company, with headquarters at Kansas City.

FINIS K. FAHLE, instructor in Lane seminary at Cincinnati, Ohio, and Miss Lena Agnes Boyd, Presbyterian missionary, were the speakers at the chapel hour at the University of Tulsa, Friday morning. Her missionary work in India was described by Miss Boyd to university students, and in the afternoon and evening to three missionary societies of the First Presbyterian church.

COTTON IS DEPRESSED

Momentary Advance on First Call, but Prices on Close Argue the Day's Lowest

NEW ORLEANS, March 18.—Except for a momentary advance on the first call, the cotton market today was depressed with the closing prices at the lowest. Depressions were not wide and there were times when the market made a plain show of having resistance of its own. Heaviest selling came in the late trading mainly because of the small bill takings for the week, 157,000 bales, against 220,000 this week, and 123,000 two years ago. The close was at net losses of 16 to 18 points. Opening prices were higher in sympathy with a better, if unimproved, outlook for cotton. The week's sales of print cloths in that market at only 55,000 pieces. The trade recalled that last week they were estimated at 65,000 pieces. About the level of yesterday's close during the day but at no time was there any sustained strength and the early prices remained the highest.

GREEN BUG DRIVE OFFSET BY BEARS

Wheat Bulls Make Considerable Progress but Close Is Heavy

CHICAGO, March 18.—Bearish sentiment, due to general economic conditions, proved more than an offset in the wheat market today for green bug crop damage. The market closed heavy, 2 1/4 to 3 1/4c net lower, with March 1 1/4 to 2 1/4c, and May 1 1/4 to 2 1/4c. Corn lost 1/2 to 3/4¢ and oats 1/4 to 1/2¢. In provisions there were some gains ranging from 7 1/2 to 35¢.

At first wheat bulls made considerable progress, many traders being impressed by authoritative announcement that the green bug pest had invaded Kansas. When it became apparent that there seemed to be no difficulty in filling the demand, commission houses turned largely to the selling side. Toward the end of the day, liberal offerings from a house with Omaha connections found the market bare of supplies, and business became light. The market was at the lowest level at the close.

Corn and oats weakened with wheat. Trade was light. Export call for hard gave strength to provisions. Hog values were largely higher.

Prosperous Suburban Church Chooses Pastor

The Union Community church, located at Eighth and Wheeling, has elected Rev. A. R. Lundy of Rock Island, Texas, as its pastor, and Sunday school and preaching are held regularly every Sunday. This church, while understood to be of the Free Will Baptist denomination, is really in essence a community church in its broadest sense, is located in a promising field, and the manner in which the citizens of this neighborhood fill its new weekly is evidence that they appreciate its work in the area.
